

NAIDOC WEEK CULTURAL EVENT

Friday July 10th

NAIDOC Week at ECU continues on Friday 10th July with an afternoon of cultural activities based in the “Forum” in front of the Ngoolark building on the Joondalup campus.

Activities include:

- A display of original artworks, prints and artisan crafts from the Yonga Boodjah Art Gallery
- Self-guided walking tours of ECU’s Aboriginal art installations around campus (includes a quiz with prizes)
- Bake sale fundraiser and raffle
- Sacred Ground: The Sea of Feet - make your mark in a public art installation by planting a foot in the Sea of Feet
- Aboriginal Cultural Quiz - a touch screen quiz with prizes
- Q & A sessions with Nyoongar artists from the Yonga Boodjah Art Gallery
- Guided walking tours of flora on campus covering both horticultural and Aboriginal perspectives

Date: Friday July 10th

Time: 12 – 4pm

Venue: JO Building 32 and surrounds

Participation is open to all (including the public). Registration for tours and talks is not required – just turn up!

All activities are concurrent between 12 noon and 4pm except for the following scheduled events:

- 1:00 – 1:30 Campus Flora Walking Tour
- 1:30 – 2:00 Yonga Boodjah Artist Q & A
- 2:00 – 2:30 Campus Flora Walking Tour
- 2:30 – 3:00 Yonga Boodjah Artist Q & A

Prizes:

Great prizes to be won, including artist designed goods from the Yonga Boodjah Art Gallery and copies of the book, Waves: The Edith Cowan University Art Collection.

Prizes are courtesy of the Centre for Learning and Development, Human Resources, and the ECU Visitor’s Centre.

For more information contact:
cld@ecu.edu.au

