International Office

About us

The International Portfolio is responsible for leading the University's international growth, engagement and the establishment of new international education and commercial enterprises. It manages the University's principal international partnerships, and it develops and supports international relationships that: enhance the University's global reputation; grows international student participation, delivers high quality transnational education programs; attracts students to the University through international partnerships and pathways and secures access to new resources for research and research students.

How we support research at ECU

The International Portfolio supports Schools in the development and execution of collaborative agreements with international academic partners.

How we support you

The International Portfolio assists staff to collaborate with international partners including mobility and exchange for research staff. The office also provides advice and guidance on arrangements for visiting scholars.
