

West Australian Network for Dissemination

wand

Workshops and Seminars

WAND Small Grants Scheme Celebration and Dissemination Event

Wed 21 June from 9.30 am – 11.30 am, at Murdoch University, Rm 460.1.031.

Refreshments provided, including coffee on arrival from 9.15am and brunch at 11 am

The West Australian Network for Dissemination (WAND) warmly invites you to a dissemination event to celebrate the completion of projects funded by the 2016 WAND Small Grants Scheme. The following recipients will present the outcomes of their projects:

- Curtin University: Mr Lionel Skinner & Associate Professor Steve McKenna: The impact of an online game on learning and teaching pedagogy on student engagement and learning outcomes
- Edith Cowan University: Ms Tania Visosevic & Ms Amanda Myers: "How to" create a Video Essay: Assignment of the Future!
- Murdoch University: Dr Lisa Cary & Mr Mike Bryant (Co-Leads), and Discipline Champions: Leading The Way: developing an advanced programme for leadership in learning and teaching scholarship
- The University of Notre Dame Australia: Professor Carole Steketee, Associate Professor Lisa Goldacre, Mr Nicholas Arnold, Mrs Helen Rogers & Dr Ainslie Robinson: Creating a 'generic language' shell to enable use of Prudentia™ curriculum mapping software across discipline
- The University of Western Australia: Mr Michael Ovens, Professor Andrew Lynch, Professor Erik Champion*, Dr Susan Morris* & Mr Mark Paynter for the project: Experiential Learning on the HTC Vive Virtual Reality Platform (*Curtin University)

Who should attend this event?

Anyone interested in hearing about innovative small projects funded by the 2016 WAND Small Grants Scheme. This includes learning and teaching staff and anyone keen to gauge the value of funding small learning and teaching projects in driving innovation in higher education.

Timetable:

Time	Activities
9.15 am	Coffee on arrival
9.30 am – 11.00 am	Presentations by Curtin, ECU, Murdoch, Notre Dame and UWA recipients
11.00 am – 11.30 am	Brunch and networking

Registration: Please register your interest in attending the event by emailing Natalie Davis N.Davis@murdoch.edu.au

Further information or queries: Please email Denyse MacNish at D.Macnish@murdoch.edu.au