

Non-grandfathered scenarios

Scenario	Example
Students in a CSP course (commenced before 2021) at undergraduate or postgraduate level returning to the same course (or an alternate course if the old course is no longer offered) after a discontinuation of studies or exclusion from studies.	A CSP student in a Bachelor degree takes a break from their studies (beyond their approved intermission date) or is excluded and returns to their studies.
Students studying under CSP places in a lower-level postgraduate award progressing to a higher-level postgraduate award (either as part of an approved nested award set or not).	A CSP student in a Graduate Diploma of ABC progresses upon completion to the Master of ABC.
Students who studied at TAFE under a CSP place articulating to a Bachelor (where a formal agreement is in place or not).	A CSP student with a completed a CSP TAFE diploma articulates to a Bachelor at ECU.
Domestic students commencing under domestic fee-paying rates and given an offer to the same course under CSP rates from 2021.	A student in a Master of XYZ successfully re-applies for their course as a CSP student.
Students changing citizenship from International to Permanent Resident or NZ citizens who newly meet CSP eligibility.	An international fee-paying student in the Bachelor of ABC changes their citizenship.
CSP commencing student who have not received an offer before, initiating study from 2021.	A new student received a CSP offer to a course in 2021.
CSP student who has an incomplete course at another institution – wishing to study the same or a related course at ECU.	A new student received a CSP offer to a course in 2021.
CSP student who has an incomplete course at another institution and enrolls to study a different course at ECU	A new student received a CSP offer to a course in 2021.
CSP student who changes to a new course with a different title (course transfer).	A current CSP student applies for an internal course transfer from Bachelor of ABC to Bachelor of XYZ.
CSP student who changes one component course in a double degree.	A current CSP student applies for a transfer from a double degree Master of ABC/Master of XYZ to a double degree Master of ABC/Master of DEF.
CSP student who removes one component course in a double degree.	A current CSP student applies for a transfer from a double degree Bachelor of ABC/Bachelor of XYZ to a single degree Bachelor of ABC.
CSP student who adds a new course to their single degree.	A current CSP undergraduate student applies for a transfer from a single degree Bachelor of ABC to a double degree Bachelor of ABC/Bachelor of XYZ.
Cross Institution student doing a CSP course at home institution and seeking to enrol in a unit at ECU to be credited to that CSP course.	Enrolled in a CSP course e.g. Bachelor of ABC at University of ABC as a pre-2021 student and applied to enrol as a cross institution student at ECU in a CSP undergraduate unit from 2021, will be charged the commencing CSP rate at ECU.