

Be a Buddy Ambassador for the Tokyo City University Australia Program (TAP)

We invite current ECU students to apply to become a Buddy Ambassador for TCU students arriving on campus for 16 weeks starting February 2025!

No Japanese language skills are required

- TAP is one of the largest mobility programs in Japan and Australia and has been running since 2016
- Share your culture with the TCU students and join fun activities to support the Experiencing Australia Program (EAP)
- We provide a training session with more information on the program and to allow you to meet the other Buddy Ambassadors

HIGHLIGHTS OF BEING A BUDDY AMBASSADOR INCLUDE:

- Enjoy a range of exciting and FREE activities, on and off campus
- Form international friendships with students and be a part of the Buddy Community
- Learn about Japanese culture
- You will receive an acknowledgement letter and certificate from the Vice-Chancellor and the Dean of International Relations (provided attendance requirements are met)

APPLY NOW

Applications close on 4 February 2025, with the training to be held on:

6 February 2025 OR

10 February 2025
