Deferred Assessment Guidelines

Deferred assessment allows students to postpone submissions of compulsory course work (essays, laboratory work, etc.) and/or completion of examinations until after the designated submission/examination dates.

NOTE: Deferred assessment applications will not be considered without relevant supporting documentation attached.

Application for deferred assessment can be made only on the following grounds:

- ill health or injury;
- compassionate grounds;
- representation in sporting activities at a national or international level;
- representation in significant cultural activities;
- employment related intrastate, interstate and overseas travel; or
- other special grounds considered appropriate.

Applications for deferred assessment must be in writing, detailing the illness or exceptional personal circumstances upon which the application is based.

The factors below WILL NOT normally be considered grounds for a deferred exam

- Routine demands of employment.
- Stress or anxiety normally associated with examinations, required assessments tasks or any aspect of course work.
- Routine financial support needs.
- Lack of knowledge of the requirements of academic work.
- Difficulties with English language.
- Scheduled anticipated changes of address, moving home, house moves etc.
- Demands of sport, clubs, social or extra-curricular activity other than to represent or participate in national or international sporting or cultural events.
- Recreational travel (domestic or international).
- Planned events, such as weddings and birthday parties.
- If the applicant has not submitted all coursework for the teaching period. Refer to Rule 4.7.1 of the University's Admission, Enrolment and Academic Progress rules. If the application is approved, it will be subject to subsequent advice from the School, in accordance with this rule.
- If the applicant has attempted the examination(s) concerned.
- If the applicant misread the examination timetable, forgot, slept in etc.

If the medical certificate relates to a deferred exam, you should submit your application via the online deferred exam application system. Please ensure your completed medical certificate is attached. Your application should be submitted no later than three days after the date of your examinations.

Applications submitted on medical grounds should be accompanied by the ECU Medical Certificate form completed, signed and stamped by a registered medical practitioner. The certificate is available from Student Central on any campus or online at student forms page.

Applicants will be advised the outcome of their application by email to their ECU student email address as soon as possible.
