5. GOODS & SERVICES TAX

- 5.1. In this clause, the expressions “adjustable note”, “consideration”, “GST”, “supply”, “tax invoice”, “recipient” and “taxable supply” have the meanings given to those expressions in the A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 (“GST Act”).
- 5.2. All sums payable or consideration to be provided under this Agreement are exclusive of GST.
- 5.3. If GST is imposed on any supply made under this Agreement, the recipient must pay to the supplier an amount equal to the GST payable on the taxable supply.
- 5.4. Such amount must be paid in addition to and at the same time as payment for the taxable supply is required to be made under this Agreement.
- 5.5. If a GST-inclusive price is charged or varied under this Agreement, the supplier must provide the recipient of the supply with a valid tax invoice or adjustment note at or before the time of payment or variation.
- 5.6. If the amount of GST paid or payable by the supplier on any supply made under this Agreement differs from the amount of GST paid by the recipient, because the Commissioner of Taxation lawfully adjusts the value of the taxable supply for the purpose of calculating GST, then the amount of GST paid by the recipient will be adjusted accordingly by a further payment by the recipient to the supplier or the supplier to the recipient, as the case requires.
- 5.7. To enable ECU to be able to complete and lodge its BAS Statements and to account for GST on In-Kind Contributions, it is necessary for ECU to create Recipient Created Tax Invoices (“RCTIs”) on behalf of the Collaborator. In the case of "in-kind" payments the Parties agree to the following:

 - (c) each Party confirms that they are registered for GST and that they will notify the other Party should they cease to be registered; and
 - (d) ECU will not issue a document which would be a RCTI after the date when either ECU or the Collaborator has failed to comply with any of the requirements for preparing an RCTI.

- 6.2. To the extent that a Party makes its Background IP available for the purposes of the Project, that Party grants to the other Parties an irrevocable, non-exclusive, royalty-free, fee-free, worldwide licence to use its Background IP during the Term for the purpose of carrying out the Project.

6.3. Intellectual Property in any Improvements to a Party's Background IP arising from the conduct of the Project will be owned by the Party that made the Background IP available.

(b) if Improvements referred to in sub-clause 6.3 are required by ECU for the Commercialisation of Project IP;

7.1. The Parties agree that all Project IP vests in ECU on creation and hereby assign all Project IP, whether existing now or created in the future, to ECU.

7.2. ECU grants to the Collaborator a non-exclusive, royalty-free licence to use the Project IP for the purpose of:

(a) undertaking the Project in accordance with this Agreement; and

(b) its non-commercial operations, provided that the Collaborator maintains the confidentiality of Confidential Information and does not otherwise default under the terms of this Agreement.

7.3. The Collaborator agrees to do all acts and things and execute all documents which may be necessary for the purpose of vesting ownership of the Project IP under this clause 7.

7.4. Any Improvement to the Project IP made by a Collaborator within 18 months after the termination or expiration of this Agreement, pursuant to the licence granted to it under clause 7.2, will be owned by the Collaborator, provided that the Collaborator:

(a) must notify ECU of any Improvement to the Project IP as soon as practicable after that Improvement is created; and

(b) grants to ECU a non-exclusive, royalty-free, fee-free, irrevocable, worldwide licence (with the right to sub-licence) to use such Improvement in the use and exploitation of the underlying Project IP for any purpose.

7.5. Each Party warrants that:

(a) to the best of its knowledge the Background IP provided by it and the Project IP created by it will not infringe the Intellectual Property rights of any person; and

(b) it has or will obtain the necessary rights to vest the Project IP and grant the licences as provided for in this clause 7.

8. FURTHER RESEARCH OF PROJECT IP

Where the Project IP requires further research, ECU has a first option to undertake such further research. Any arrangement negotiated between ECU and a Collaborator for such further research is outside the scope of this Agreement and must be the subject of a separate agreement.

9. MORAL RIGHTS

Each Party acknowledges that employees, contractors, agents and any other representatives of the Parties involved in the Project will, if they are authors of material comprised in the Project IP in which copyright subsists, have moral rights in those copyright materials.

- 10.1. When receiving Confidential Information, the Receiving Party must:

- 10.2. At the termination or expiration of this Agreement or upon the earlier written request of the Disclosing Party, the Receiving Party must return to the Disclosing Party or destroy all Confidential Information and must not keep any copies in any form, except that the Receiving Party may retain such copies as are necessary to comply with any laws, regulations or internal record keeping requirements.

11. PUBLICITY

No Party will use the name or trade mark of the other Party, nor of any member of the other Party's employees or students, in any publicity, advertising, or news release, without the prior written approval of an authorised representative of that Party which consent can be withheld at a Party's absolute discretion.

12. LIABILITY

- 12.1. Warranty. Each Party warrants that it will carry out its obligations under this Agreement with due care and skill and in a professional manner.

- 12.3. Resupply of Services: ECU's liability for breach of any term, whether express or implied, will be, if permitted by law, limited (at ECU's option) to the resupply
