

Student Services and Amenities Fee 2027:

Funding priorities for student feedback

The University's proposed priorities for 2027 include investment in:

- Promoting the health and welfare of students
- Careers and employability support
- Study skills and academic support
- Advising on matters arising under ECU's rules and policies
- Student Voice initiatives
- Supporting students in their orientation and transition to University
- Caring for children of students (via support for the ECU South West campus creche)
- Supporting sporting and recreational activities

The ECU Student Guild's proposed priorities for 2027 include investment in:

- Providing food to students
- Supporting Guild Clubs
- Helping students with their financial affairs
- Student advocacy
- Supporting the production and distribution of student media
- Promoting the health and welfare of students
- Study skills and academic support
- Supporting students in their orientation and transition to University
- Supporting sporting and recreational activities

Note: Under the Higher Education Support Act 2003 (HESA), Universities may only use SSAF revenue to provide or subsidise services and amenities within the 19 categories prescribed under section 19-38 of HESA. Further information on the eligible categories is available at: <https://www.education.gov.au/higher-education-publications/higher-education-administrative-information-providers/18-student-services-and-amenities-fee>